MANY AT AFTERNOON MEETING

In no city in this country was there a more religious or sincere observance of the centenary of Frederic Ozanam, the modern apostle of charity and founder of the St. Vincent de Paul Society, than in Louisville last Sunday. Right Rev. Bishop O'Donoghue celebrated Pontifical high mass at the Cathedral, which was attended by the conferences of all the churches in the city, the members receiving holy communion in a body. The number of men present was exceedingly large when it is remembered that in several of the parishes the children of many were making their first communion, thus keeping a number away.

In the afternoon there was a large gathering in the Knights of Columbus Hall on Fourth avenue, where the general memorial meeting was held. President J. J. Caffrey occupied the chair, Rev. Father Donahue, of the Cathedral, the Spiritual Director, offering the opening prayer. As this was a special meeting the reading of conference reports was dispensed with, but President Caffrey enrolled a number of new members. In receiving them as Vincentians he informed them that for their every act of charity there was a special indulgence and that for members of this society there are many spiritual benefits. He was highly gratified to announce that through the Bishop the society had received $1,000 from a generous donor whose name would be made known later. He would only say the gift was the bequest of a lady who died some time ago, who was acquainted with the work of the Vincentians and the local conferences. He hoped there were others who would follow her good example.

President Caffrey then introduced Benedict Elder, the attorney, who for over an hour held his hearers spellbound as he told of the wonderful career of Frederic Ozanam and his arduous activities in everything that had for the Catholic cause and charity. His address was indeed appreciated and at its conclusion there was long continued applause. Mr. Elder said they were assembled to celebrate the centenary of one man out of millions, who founded not a city or government, but loved God and his fellow man, and today Vincentians were gathered everywhere throughout the world to draw a lesson and inspiration from his life and deeds. The speaker dwelt on the history of the Ozanam family for seven centuries before the birth of Frederic, which took place in Milan in 1813, while his father was succeeding and enjoying a scoured city. Mr. Elder dwelt at length upon the early life of Ozanam and the conditions then existing when the powers of hell were let loose in France. It was their founder who changed the atmosphere with a respect for Catholic truth and the beauty of the teachings of the church and its eternal greatness. Ozanam was educated for a lawyer, he said, and it was only that that prevented him from becoming a saint. Though the founder of this great society had achieved marked distinction in his public career, he was always a loyal Vincentian and persevering in his faith, his sincerity compelling conviction. Therefore it was that they should perpetuate the lives of men like Ozanam for the good they have done and the help rendered, that made men purer and saved all for God.

Father Deppen, Father Raffo, Father Francis O'Neill, O. P., and Father George Connor were called upon, and in short responses declared they were refreshed, edified and rejoiced with the scholarly and finished address of Mr. Elder, which marked the day as a memorable occasion. They were encouraged with the spirit that permeated the day. They were pleading before the world the true ideal of Christian charity, and it was a joyful thing to know that the future will bring forth the full realization of their hopes. Father Donahue was the last speaker, and his every word was given the closest attention. He encouraged the members and urged them to persevere in the work of their society and increase its usefulness. Altogether this was a day that not a Vincentian present will ever forget.

BLUDES LEXINGTON POLICE.

Assistant Chief of Police Dennis McCarty was quietly married Monday night to Miss Jeanette Doyle at St. Peter's church in Lexington, the Rev. Father DeWagner officiating. The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Janie Doyle, 752 West Main street, and sister of the late James Doyle, who was City Assessor for many years.

INTOLERANCE

Shameful Treatment of Presbyterians by Ulster Orangemen.

Had Manliness and Courage to Refuse to Sign Ridiculous Covenant.

Protestants Who See Nothing to Fear From Home Rule Increasing.

TRUST THEIR FELLOW CATHOLICS

The bigotry and intolerance of the Ulster Orangemen is well exemplified by the story of the Scotstown Presbyterian affair, as told by the Dundalk Democrat. It appears that the Presbyterian church at Scotstown, County Monaghan, has been served by a clergyman named Rev. John Patterson—so far as we know a worthy minister of his church, and an man who ventures to say otherwise. Some months ago one-half his congregation rose and left the Scotstown Presbyterian church and went in a body to the Orange hall, where ever since these double dissenters have assembled every Sunday morning at the hour fixed for service in the church and held a service of their own, to which it appears most of the church congregation eventually came. It might be thought that the Rev. Patterson had committed some fearful crime, repudiated some Presbyterian doctrine, or in some way outraged the feelings of his hearers. But no. The reverend gentleman's sole "crime" was that he had the manliness to refuse to sign the notorious Orange covenant.

We hear a lot of the Orangemen's professed love for "civil and religious liberty." But here they deny to their own minister the right—not even to assert political doctrines different from their, but to refrain from endorsing the implied outrage upon the feelings of his Catholic neighbors contained in the covenant, or from pledging himself, against his conscience and his sense of right, to take up arms to resist home rule.

We know many Presbyterians, including some of the most distinguished, who are no home rulers as their forefathers were. We know many more who see nothing to fear in home rule and rely upon the good sense of their Catholic fellow countrymen, far more than upon the safeguards contained in the bill, to protect them from any form of injustice, not to say persecution. We do not know even one who will assert that he genuinely fears and such event. We have in mind the outspoken declaration of a Presbyterian clergyman at the time the covenant—now almost forgotten—was being used to work up bogus Unionist sentiment in Ulster. That clergyman, not a home ruler, wrote to the Dundalk Democrat that he did not distrust their Catholic fellow countrymen, and was ashamed of the things said and done in the name of religion, "as they felt that the religion thus exhibited was not the religion that had made the men of Ulster what they had stood for in the past."

The Rev. Patterson is entitled to the approbation of every right-thinking man and every lover of justice and of liberty. He has refused to do what his conscience, and his Catholic neighbors unjustly or to do what his civil and foolish vapors of civil war and bloodshed to which too many of his cloth allowed themselves to be persuaded—no doubt against the better judgment of most of them. Those members of his congregation who have taken such extraordinary means to punish him for his manly and Christian stand have unwittingly done public decency a service by showing the intolerant spirit of Orangemen and the true interpretation to be placed upon "civil and religious liberty" as understood and desired by them.

Rev. Patterson took part in the United Ulster day service in Ballinacorney parish church, but when the time for signing the covenant arrived he refused to do so. On the next Sunday by way of protest almost half of the congregation left when he commenced the ordinary service in his own church. Since then special services have been conducted each Sunday at the same time as the services of the congregation in the parish church, and the celebration of the sixteenth hundredth anniversary of the Constantinian edict. Very Rev. Mgr. Michael J. Spaine, administrator of the Cathedral of the Holy Cross, and Dr. J. R. Slattery, of St. Elizabeth's Hospital, accompanied him.

SACRED HEART CHURCH.

The annual parish candy pulling for the benefit of the Sacred Heart parochial school will be held Monday in the school hall at Seventeenth and Broadway. For two weeks past the ladies of the congregation have been busy and they will make this the best candy pulling of the year. Owing to the large number who will attend the afternoon will be for the children and night for their parents. For all there will be varied and pleasing attractions.

PRIZE COURT

Will Have Record Breaking Docket For Next Week.

The Prize Court in connection with the euche and lotto to be given next Thursday and Friday in the school hall at Thirteenth and Market streets, for the benefit of St. Patrick's new parochial school, will open with the largest docket ever recorded in Louisville. For the past month the ladies of the congregation have been preparing for this event and every detail has been carefully arranged. Tickets are being sold at twenty-five cents, and with each is a coupon that may be worth $2.50 in gold and gives the holder a standing in court. The prize court is a new and novel method of entertainment and will be found very amusing. For years the ladies of St. Patrick's have been earnest workers for all charity undertakings in Louisville, and now that they are helping Father Cronin in the work of building a fine school, they feel justified in calling upon their friends for assistance.

REAL TREAT.

Trinity Council Appreciated Lecture of Father O'Neill, O. P.

Members of Trinity Council enjoyed a real intellectual treat Monday night when Rev. Francis O'Neill, of St. Louis Bertrand's, the eloquent missionary and former professor at the Catholic College at Columbus, delivered a lecture on "Literature." It was pronounced one of the most eloquent lectures ever delivered within the walls of Trinity Council, and the force with which it was imparted can not be overestimated. It was an appeal on the minds of those who heard. It. The members feel highly grateful to Father O'Neill and hope that it will not be long until they may again have the opportunity of hearing him. Next Monday night as a special order the question of the addition to the club house will be further discussed, the Building Committee having received from the architect the plans, specifications and bids for the proposed work. President Eckert occupied the chair and all the routine business was disposed of at an early hour.

BOSLER—HUBBACH.

One of the most interesting of the spring weddings was solemnized with nuptial mass Wednesday morning at St. Mary's church on Eighth street, when Edward J. Bosler, of the altar Miss Flora Marie Hubbach. The altar and sanctuary were hanked with plants and flowers and with the myriad lights presented an enchanting scene. Miss Mayme Hubbach, sister of the bride, was the bridesmaid, and Ray W. Bosler, the bridegroom's brother, acted as best man. Rev. Father Westermann, who performed the marriage ceremony, was the celebrant of the nuptial mass. Both bride and groom have been prominent and popular in society circles, and a legion of friends pray that they may enjoy a long and happy married life. Immediately after the ceremony the newly wedded couple left for an Eastern honeymoon trip, to be gone until May 20, after which time they will be at home at Mr. Bosler's summer residence, "Hillview," for the summer.

MARY'S MONTH.

The month of May is specially devoted to the Blessed Virgin Mary, and in all the Catholic churches there will be continuous devotions in her honor. At the Church of St. Louis Bertrand the May devotions are always introduced with solemn splendor. Tomorrow afternoon there will take place the annual May day procession of the church sodalities and societies, presenting one of the most beautiful and impressive sights of the year. At the Cathedral, St. Anthony's, St. Patrick's, Sacred Heart, St. Charles and the other churches there will be the usual May processions and solemn services.

NATIONAL DELEGATE.

Col. Joseph P. McGinn will leave next week for Washington to attend the triennial national convention of the Catholic Knights of America at Supreme Delegation from Kentucky. The convention will open on May 13 and be in session for five days. Kentucky will also be represented by Col. Peter Manion, of Henderson. Supreme President Gaudin has placed Col. McGinn on the Committee on Official Reports, the other members being Rev. W. J. Howlett, of Colorado; D. P. Kelleher, of Texas; Joseph F. Kieffer, of Pennsylvania; and A. W. Oelmann, of Tennessee. Before returning Delegate McGinn will visit the Eastern cities.

KIMPS UP STRIDE.

Vice President Thomas Lynch, of Division 4, A. O. H., demonstrated Monday evening that he has not lost his pace in securing applicants for membership, the following being turned in by the noble old Roman of Division 4: Thomas Doyle, R. T. Burns, J. W. Brady, William and Phil Broderick, President John Hennessy, Obligated Patrolman Pat O'Hearn, who later in the evening spoke on the splendid fraternity of the A. O. H. Hon. M. J. McDermott delivered a short talk on the merger ordinance which was recently approved by the General Council, and Pat O'Donnell delivered a few remarks on economy. Pat McGuire was reported as improving, but is still confined to Sts. Mary and Elizabeth Hospital from his recent injury.

METHODIST

Minister Who Thanks God For and Respects the Catholic Church.

Honors Stand Against Divorce and Evils That Disgrace America.

Its Presence Embles All to Sleep With Feeling of Peace and Security.

THE DEFENDER OF THE BIBLE

In the Chicago Inter-Ocean of recent date there appeared a sermon by Rev. Charles Bayard Mitchell, D. D., LL. D., who is said to be the most widely known Methodist minister in the West, and is pastor of St. James church, Chicago. Among other things Dr. Mitchell said:

"I have long since come to that point in my religious experience where I can not do other than love and respect any church which exalts the name of Jesus Christ. I think it is evidence of growth in grace when a Christian comes to love all the churches, and finds much to admire and like in denominations other than his own. I want to tell you this morning some of the things which I like in other churches."

"In the first place, I like the Roman Catholic church because it stands so immovably in its allegiance to Jesus Christ as very God. None of its leaders ever question the deity of Jesus. I also like it because it believes in the religious training of its children, and at great sacrifice of time and money does it. I could wish that it would send its children to the public schools, while at the same time carrying on in its churches the religious training upon which it rightly places so much emphasis."

"I like it because it stands for the purity of the home life and the sanctity of the marriage vow. Thank God for that church's strong and clear protest against the cheap divorce mills, which disgrace our American civilization. I honor that church for what it is doing in the building and maintenance of hospitals and asylums. I honor it for its defense of the Bible, and am almost ready to condone its futile battle against 'modernism,' for it is so tremendously in earnest to stem the tide of Godless materialism."

"I especially thank God for the stand that church takes in this land against anarchy on the one hand and an impossible socialism on the other. When I think of the seething masses of foreigners of a certain type in our cities, which we Protestants never produced, and thus far at least have been unable to touch, I thank God for a Christian church which does touch them, and exerts its potent influence over them from the wild vagaries of the impracticable Socialist and also from the destructive tendencies of the wild-eyed anarchist."

"I go to sleep every night with a firmer feeling of security because we have in this city the Roman Catholic church."

KNIGHTS OF ST. JOHN.

The several commanderies of the Knights of St. John of Louisville, the strongest Catholic military society in this city, will have their twenty-seventh annual inspection and drill at Phoenix Hill Park next Monday night, to be followed by a reception dance. This is always a popular event in Catholic fraternal society circles, and the drills of the various crack commanderies will be well worth witnessing. The Knights will appear in their new uniforms and will be under the command of Col. Breen and staff.

COMES TO UNVEIL ALTAR.

Antonio de Navarro, husband of the great actress, Mary Anderson, arrived in New York last Saturday morning on board the Celtic of the White Star line, to unveil the memorial altar at St. Patrick's Cathedral which has been placed in memory of his mother. The altar, which was presented by Mr. de Navarro and his brother Alfonso, will be dedicated on May 6. It cost $25,000 and was after designs made by Henry Brown, who designed the Lincoln Memorial in Washington. D. C. Mr. de Navarro said that his wife was in the best of health, and also the children. She wished to accompany him on the trip, but circumstances prevented her doing so.

ENTERS NEW FIELD.

Thomas J. Dolan, Councilman from the Twelfth ward, for many years with the Speed Cement and Lime Company, has engaged in the insurance business, having accepted the position of special agent of the New York Life Insurance Company, with offices in the Paul Jones building. Councilman Dolan has a legion of friends who predict his success and will aid him in his new field.

HONOR IRISH TENOR.

The Irish and Roman Catholic organizations of New York City gave a reception at Aeolian Hall Sunday night to Thomas Pagan, the Irish tenor. Prominent members of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, Knights of Columbus and Gaelic Society helped to arrange the affair. James J. Regan, President of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, came from St. Paul for the occasion. The patrons included Cardinal Farley, Joseph I. C. Clarke, the Rev. Thomas W. Wallace, Denis A. Spellman, Dr. Gertrude B. Kelly, Dr. Francis J. Quinn and Col. Louis D. Conloy.

PETITIONS

Being Circulated in Great Numbers by Prospective Democratic Candidates.

Have Sixty Days From Today in Which to Secure Voters' Signatures.

Legislative Candidates Need But Small Number to Comply With Law.

STRONG DEMOCRATIC TICKET

Petitions for a place on the ballot in the coming August primary will be widely circulated beginning today, as this is the first day under the law which allows them to be circulated. Many candidates will begin hustling today for the requisite number of signatures before the bulk of signers are gobbled up, as those obtained are equivalent to supporters, as the signer of a nomination paper of a candidate is expected to declare himself for that particular candidate. Candidates are given sixty days from today in which to secure signatures, all petitions having to be filed by July 2, and are subject to inspection by candidates, the County Attorney and the Commonwealth Attorney.

The candidates for the county offices in order to secure the necessary 3 per cent, which is the lowest number required by law, will have to secure 733 signers, and the candidates for the city offices will have to secure 622 signers, that is the candidates who are running in the city at large. These legislative candidates, such as Legislative candidates, will have to secure a small proportion of signers; for instance the Forty-fifth district candidate will only need to secure about fifty-four signers; the Forty-sixth district candidate about 140; the Forty-seventh district candidate about seventy-eight; the Forty-eighth district candidate about seventy; the Forty-ninth district candidate about fifty-four; the Fiftieth district candidate about twenty, this being the Tenth ward, a Republican stronghold; the Fifty-first district candidate about 210, this being the Eleventh and Twelfth wards.

Of course all of the above figures are based on the Democratic end of the primary, the only interest thus far being exhibited from that party, the interest of the Progressives and Republicans being centered on the fight between the Herald and the Post as to a probable Fusion ticket, the wily Editor Knott becoming more and more frantic daily as he realizes there is no chance for him or his organ to tag into either party. On the other hand the Herald, despairing of reviving the fast dying Progressive party, is now agitating the suffragette question with the hope of securing this sad element to boost the Progressive cause.

As predicted in these columns several months ago, Dr. John H. Buschmeyer will have no opposition for the Democratic nomination and very little in November. Judging from the present outlook we expect some of the Republican or Progressive brethren to rise and offer a motion to make his election unanimous. Our other best bet, Scott Bullitt, has fulfilled our predictions and will have no opposition for the nomination for County Attorney to succeed himself, although many of the boys in the trenches had hoped to see him aspire higher, his personal popularity enabling him to secure their united support at all times. Charlie Cronan is another with no opposition in his race for the Sheriff's nomination, and with men of this caliber the Democrats need not fear the ultimate outcome, as the ticket chosen by the Democratic voters in the primary can surely be called the people's choice.

OUR LADIES' HOP.

On Monday evening, May 12, there will be a large and happy gathering at Schreiber Hall, Twenty-sixth and Bank street, where the Hibernian Ladies' Auxiliary will hold their first social call hop, to which they cordially invite their friends. The committees arranging for this event are headed by Miss Emma Fisher, Miss Thille Cuniffe and Mrs. John Waterman. This very popular ladies' organization has been coming to the front rapidly and deserves credit for the active interest manifested in Catholic affairs of the city. Hibernians and others who attend will spend an enjoyable evening.

CONCISE IRISH HISTORY.

People who desire to become thoroughly posted in Irish history without much effort on their own part should secure a copy of the work just issued by Harvey B. Casady, of the Syracuse Printing and Publishing Company. Mr. Casady has arranged the matter in catechism form, which makes it not only attractive but easy to fix in one's mind. The second part of the booklet is given over to the natural history of Ireland. There are fifty-six pages in the work, and therein consists its effectiveness. It is the complete history of Ireland in a nutshell for the small sum of fifteen cents. We commend this excellent booklet to our readers.

STIRRED.

Father Felten Gives Young Men an Earnest Talk.

There was a good attendance at the meeting of Mackin Council last Monday night, when the members were stirred by the earnest and timely talk of the Rev. Francis Felten, pastor of St. Augustine's church and chaplain of the council.

Father Felten told the young men the way they should go, pointing out the duty they owe God and their country. He also laid strong emphasis on the necessity of attendance at meetings and participation in the discussion of all matters pertaining to the future welfare of the Y. M. I. Memorial resolutions on the death of Joseph Bartsch were adopted, and an engrossed copy ordered sent to his family. President Adams announced that another application had been received and that those on the sick list were improving. Before adjourning several members spoke in complimentary terms of the initiation and banquet and the excellent work of Attorney Robert T. Burke and Dan J. Hennessy and the committee that made the arrangements.

PEACHES.

Little Act That Brought the Gaughan Family into Church.

Hon. T. J. Gaughan, a prominent attorney of Camden, Ark., and a great admirer and staunch supporter of his fellow townsman, Judge Hays, for Governor, was one of the principal speakers at the recent Knights of Columbus banquet given in Little Rock. Mr. Gaughan related many interesting things, among which was the story of how a little act, trifling in itself, changed his whole career and the career of others and made of him, his mother, his brothers and his nine children all Catholics. "When I was a lad in my teens," said Mr. Gaughan, "my father had as his guests two distinguished gentlemen. While these visiting gentlemen and my father were enjoying a pleasant conversation I went out and gathered a basket full of fine, ripe peaches and gave them to my father and his guests. The peaches seemed to be greatly relished by the visitors and as they changed they naturally thought of the giver, and this prompted one of them to say to my father: 'This is a promising looking youngster. Why don't you send him to school?' My father answered their question by asking another: 'Where shall I send him?' Then one of the gentlemen spoke up and said: 'Send him where my friend and I went to school.' It was agreed that this should be done, and as a consequence I was sent to St. Joseph's, Bardonia, Ky., where I learned of the Catholic religion and became a Catholic. I often think it was a lucky thing for me and my family that I gave those men a basket of peaches."

NOTHING IN HUMORS.

In reply to a question as to a rumor that the Irish Parliament could not return to the old Parliament House in College Green, John Hedmond said: "You may be quite certain that there is nothing whatever in these rumors. You may be sure that the universal sentiment in Ireland would insist on the Parliament going back there. It is said that the building is not quite convenient for modern parliamentary use. Even if it were not, the ties of memory and tradition would be too strong to be broken. No Irishman would dream of having his Parliament anywhere else."

SPAGHETTI SUPPER.

The ladies of St. Charles Borromeo congregation will serve a spaghetti supper for their friends Monday evening from 5 to 8 o'clock in St. Charles Hall, Twenty-seventh and Chestnut streets, which promises to be a treat for those who partake of it. In addition the ladies will entertain with a euche and lotto party, the games to be called at 2:30 and 8 o'clock. Tickets are twenty-five cents and good for either games or supper.

FORMING COLORED PARISH.

With the assistance of Rev. John T. O'Connell, administrator of the diocese and pastor of the Cathedral, the colored Catholics of Toledo, Ohio, are forming a parish in that city. Bishop Schrembs has approved the movement. Until a priest is assigned them the colored people will have the use of the Cathedral chapel.

RETREAT AT ACADEMY.

The Rev. Father Alphonsus, C. P., of the Sacred Heart Retreat on the Newburg road, conducted the spiritual retreat that opened Monday with a euche and lotto party. The retreat in Crescent Hill. The retreat was given for the pupils of that splendid educational institution for girls and young women.

MARY C. GRAVES.

Many persons throughout the city were greatly grieved to learn of the passing away of Mrs. Mary C. Graves, beloved wife of John C. Graves, 852 South Fifth street, who died at St. Anthony's Hospital on Wednesday, following an operation for appendicitis. Mrs. Graves was beloved by a large circle of friends in this city, who knew her as a woman of beautiful character, cheerful disposition and kind, sympathetic nature. A member of the Cathedral parish, Mrs. Graves was ever zealous in the practice of her religion and a generous donor to every deserving charity. She was before her marriage Miss Mary Hennessy and was born in this city. Besides her husband she leaves two daughters, Lida and Ethel Graves, and a wide circle of relatives and friends. Her funeral will take place this morning from the Cathedral.

WILL SEE THE POPE.

Cardinal William H. O'Connell, of Boston, left Saturday for Rome on board the Canopic, of the White Star line. He will see Pope Plus, inspect work being done on his titular church, San Clemente, and participate in celebrations of the sixteenth hundredth anniversary of the Constantinian edict. Very Rev. Mgr. Among other things Dr. Mitchell said: "I have long since come to that point in my religious experience where I can not do other than love and respect any church which exalts the name of Jesus Christ. I think it is evidence of growth in grace when a Christian comes to love all the churches, and finds much to admire and like in denominations other than his own. I want to tell you this morning some of the things which I like in other churches.

"In the first place, I like the Roman Catholic church because it stands so immovably in its allegiance to Jesus Christ as very God. None of its leaders ever question the deity of Jesus. I like it because it believes in the religious training of its children, and at great sacrifice of time and money does it. I could wish that it would send its children to the public schools, while at the same time carrying on in its churches the religious training upon which it rightly places so much emphasis.

"I like it because it stands for the purity of the home life and the sanctity of the marriage vow. Thank God for that church's strong and clear protest against the cheap divorce mills which disgrace our American civilization. I honor that church for what it is doing in the building and maintenance of hospitals and asylums. I honor it for its defense of the Bible, and an almost ready to condemn its futile battle against modernism. For it is so tremendously in earnest to stem the tide of Godless materialism.

"I especially thank God for the stand that church takes in this land against anarchy on the one hand and an impossible socialism on the other. When I think of the seething masses of forebears of a certain type in our cities, which we Protestants never produced, and thus far at least have been unable to touch, I thank God for a Christian church which does touch them, and exerts its potent influence over them from the wild vagaries of the impracticable Socialist and also from the destructive tendencies of the wild-eyed anarchist.

"I go to sleep every night with a firmer feeling of security because we have in this city the Roman Catholic church."

KNIGHTS OF ST. JOHN.

The several commanderies of the Knights of St. John of Louisville, the strongest Catholic military society in this city, will have their twenty-seventh annual inspection and drill at Phoenix Hill Park next Monday night, to be followed by a reception dance. This is always a popular event in Catholic fraternal circles, and the drills of the various crack commanderies will be well worth witnessing. The Knights will appear in their new uniforms and will be under the command of Col. Breen and staff.

COMES TO UNVEIL ALTAR.

Antonio de Navarro, husband of the great actress, Maury Anderson, arrived in New York last Saturday morning on board the Celtic, of the White Star line, to unveil the memorial altar at St. Patrick's Cathedral which has been placed in memory of his mother. The altar, which was presented by Mr. de Navarro and his brother Alphonso, will be dedicated on May 6. It cost $25,000 and was after designs made by Henry Brown, who designed the Lincoln Memorial in Washington, D. C. Mr. de Navarro said that his wife was in the best of health, and also the children. She wished to accompany him on the trip, but circumstances prevented her doing so.

Will Have Record Breaking Docket For Next Week.

The Prize Court in connection with the euchar and lotto to be given next Thursday and Friday in the school hall at Thirteenth and Market streets, for the benefit of St. Patrick's new parochial school, will open with the largest docket ever recorded in Louisville. For the past month the ladies of the congregation have been preparing for this event, and every detail has been carefully arranged. Tickets are being sold at twenty-five cents, and with each is a coupon that may be worth $2.50 in gold and gives the holder a standing in court. The prize court is a new and novel method of entertainment and will be found very amusing. For years the ladies of St. Patrick's have been earnest workers for all charity undertakings in Louisville, and now that they are helping Father Cronin in the work of building a fine school, they feel justified in calling upon their friends for assistance.

REAL TREAT.

Trinity Council Appreciated Lecture of Father O'Neill, O. P.

Members of Trinity Council enjoyed a real intellectual treat Monday night when Rev. Francis O'Neill, of St. Louis Bertrand, the eloquent minister and former professor at the Catholic College at Columbus, delivered a lecture on "Literature." It was pronounced one of the most eloquent lectures ever delivered within the walls of Trinity Council, and the force with which it was imparted can not be overestimated. The impression on the minds of those who heard it. The members feel highly grateful to Father O'Neill and hope that it will not be long until they may again have the opportunity of hearing him. Next Monday night as a special order the question of the addition to the club house will be further discussed, the Building Committee having received from the architect the plans, specifications and bids for the proposed work. President Eckert occupied the chair and all the routine business was disposed of at an early hour.

BOSLER-HUBBUCH.

One of the most interesting of the spring wedding was solemnized with nuptial mass Wednesday morning at St. Mary's church on Eighth street, when Edward J. Bosler led to the altar Miss Flora Marie Hubbuch. The altar and sanctuary were banked with plants and flowers and by the myriad lights presented an enchanting scene. Miss Mayne Hubbuch, sister of the bride, was the bridesmaid, and Ray W. Bosler, the bridegroom's brother, acted as best man. Rev. Father Westermann, who performed the marriage ceremony, was the celebrant of the nuptial mass. Both bride and groom have been prominent and popular in society circles, and a legion of friends pray that they may enjoy a long and happy married life. Immediately after the ceremony the newly wedded couple left for an extended honeymoon trip, to be gone until May 20, after which time they will be at home at Mr. Bosler's summer residence, "Hillview," for the summer.

MARY'S MONTH.

The month of May is specially devoted to the Blessed Virgin Mary, and in all the Catholic churches there will be continuous devotions in her honor. At the Church of St. Louis Bertrand the May devotions are always introduced with solemn splendor. Tomorrow afternoon will take place the annual May day procession of the church sodalities and societies, presenting one of the most beautiful and impressive sights of the year. At the Cathedral, St. Anthony's, St. Patrick's, Sacred Heart, St. Charles and the other churches there will be the usual May processions and solemn services.

NATIONAL DELEGATE.

Col. Joseph P. McGinn will leave next week for Washington to attend the triennial national convention of the Catholic Knights of America at Supreme Delegate from Kentucky. The convention will open on May 13 and be in session for five days. Kentucky will also be represented by Col. Peter Maslin, of Henderson, Supreme President Gaudin, in the official reports, the other members being Rev. W. J. Howlett, of Colorado; D. F. Kelleher, of Texas; Joseph F. Kleffer, of Pennsylvania, and A. W. Coleman, of Tennessee. Before returning Delegate McGinn will visit the Eastern cities.

PETITIONS

Being Circulated in Great Numbers by Prospective Democratic Candidates.

Have Sixty Days From Today in Which to Secure Voters' Signatures.

Legislative Candidates Need But Small Number to Comply With Law.

STRONG DEMOCRATIC TICKET

Petitions for a place on the ballot in the coming August primary will be widely circulated beginning today, as this is the first day under the law which allows them to be circulated. Many candidates will begin hustling today for the requisite number of signatures before the bulk of signers are gobbled up, as those obtained are equivalent to supporters, as the signer of a nomination paper of a candidate is expected to declare himself for that particular candidate. Candidates are given sixty days from today in which to secure signatures, all petitions having to be filed by July 2, and are subject to inspection by candidates, the County Attorney and the Commonwealth Attorney.

The candidates for the county offices in order to secure the necessary 3 per cent, which is the lowest number required by law, will have to secure 733 names, and the candidates for the city offices will have to secure 622 signers, that is the candidates who are running in a district, such as Legislative candidates, will have to secure a small proportion of signers; for instance the Forty-fifth district candidate will only need to secure about fifty-four signers; the Forty-sixth district candidate about 140; the Forty-seventh district candidate about seventy-eight; the Forty-eighth district candidate about seventy; the Forty-ninth district candidate about fifty-four; the Fiftieth district about twenty, this being the Tenth ward, a Republican stronghold; the Fifty-first district candidate about 210, this being the Eleventh and Twelfth wards.

Of course all of the above numbers are based on the Democratic end of the primary, the only interest thus far being exhibited from that party, the interest of the Progressives and Republicans being centered on the fight between the Herald and the Post as to a probable Fusion ticket, the wily Editor Knott becoming more frantic daily as he realizes there is no chance for him or his organ to tag into either party. On the other hand the Herald, despairing of surviving the fast dying Progressive party, is now agitating the suffragette question with the hope of securing this sad element to boost the Progressive cause.

As predicted in these columns several months ago, Dr. John H. Inschenmeyer will have no opposition for the Democratic nomination and very little in November. Judging from the present outlook we expect some of the Republican or Progressive brethren to rise and offer a motion to make his election unanimous. Our other best bet, Scott Bullitt, has fulfilled our predictions and will have no opposition for the nomination for County Attorney to succeed himself, although many of the boys in the trenches had hoped to see him aspire higher, his personal popularity enabling him to secure their united support at all times. Charlie Cronan is another with no opposition in his race for the Sheriff's nomination, and with men of this caliber the Democrats need not fear the ultimate outcome, as the voters chosen by the Democratic ticket in the primary can surely be called the people's choice.

OUR LADIES' HOP.

On Monday evening, May 12, there will be a large and happy gathering at Schreiber Hall, Twenty-sixth and Bank street, where the Hibernian Ladies' Auxiliary will hold their first select calliope hop, to which they cordially invite their friends. The committees arranging for this event are headed by Miss Emma Fisher, Miss Tillie Conville and Mrs. John Waterman. This very popular ladies' organization has been coming to the front rapidly and deserves credit for the active interest manifested in Catholic affairs of the city. Hibernians and others who attend will spend an enjoyable evening.

CONCISE IRISH HISTORY.

People who desire to become thoroughly posted in Irish history without much effort on their own part should secure a copy of the work just issued by Harvey B. Cassidy, of the Syracuse Printing and Publishing Company. Mr. Cassidy has arranged the matter in catechism form, which makes it not only attractive but easy to fix in one's mind. The second part of the booklet is given over to the natural history of Ireland. There are fifty-six pages in the work, and therein consists its effectiveness. It is the complete history of Ireland in a nutshell for the small sum of fifteen cents. We commend this excellent booklet to our readers.

STIRRED.

Father Felten Gives Young Men an Earnest Talk.

There was a good attendance at the meeting of Mackin Council last Monday night, when the members were stirred by the earnest and timely talk of the Rev. Francis Felten, pastor of St. Augustine's church and chaplain of the council. In plain but forceful language Father Felten told the young men the way they should go, pointing out the duty they owe God and their country. He also laid strong emphasis on the necessity of attendance at meetings and participation in the discussion of all matters pertaining to the future welfare of the Y. M. I. Memorial resolutions on the death of Joseph Bartsch were adopted, and an engrossed copy ordered sent his family. President Adams announced that another application had been received and that those on the sick list were improving. Before adjourning several members spoke in complimentary terms of the initiation and banquet and the excellent work of Attorney Robert T. Burke and Dan J. Hennessy and the committee that made the arrangements.

PEACHES.

Little Act That Brought the Gaughan Family into Church.

Hon. T. J. Gaughan, a prominent attorney of Camden, Ark., and a great admirer and staunch supporter of his fellow townsman, Judge Hays, for Governor, was one of the principal speakers at the recent Knights of Columbus banquet given in Little Rock. Mr. Gaughan related many interesting things, among which was the story of how a little act, trifling in itself, changed his whole career and the career of others and made of him, his mother, his brothers and his nine children all Catholics. "When I was a lad in my teens," said Mr. Gaughan, "my father had as his guests two distinguished gentlemen. While these visiting gentlemen and my father were enjoying a pleasant conversation I went out and gathered a basket full of ripe peaches and gave them to my father and his guests. The peaches seemed to be greatly relished by the visitors and as they ate them they naturally thought of the giver, and this prompted one of them to say to my father: 'This is a promising looking youngster. Why don't you send him to school?' My father answered their question by asking another: 'Where shall I send him?' Then one of the gentlemen spoke up and said: 'Send him where my friend and I went to school.' It was agreed that this should be done, and as a consequence I was sent to St. Joseph's. Bardonia, Ky., where I learned of the Catholic religion and became a Catholic. I often think it was a lucky thing for me and my family that I gave those men a basket of peaches."

NOTHING IN HUMORS.

In reply to a question as to a rumor that the Irish Parliament could not return to the old Parliament House in College Green, John Redmond said: "You may be quite certain that there is nothing whatever in these rumors. You may be sure that the universal sentiment in Ireland would insist on the Parliament going back there. It is said that the building is not quite convenient for modern parliamentary use. Even if it were not, the ties of memory and tradition would be too strong to be broken. No Irishman would dream of having his Parliament anywhere else."

SPAGHETTI SUPPER.

The ladies of St. Charles Borromeo congregation will serve a spaghetti supper for their friends Monday evening from 5 to 8 o'clock in St. Charles Hall. Twenty-seventh and Chestnut streets, which promises to be a treat for those who partake of it. In addition the ladies will entertain with a euchar and lotto party, the games to be called at 2:30 and 8 o'clock. Tickets are twenty-five cents and good for either games or supper.

Bishop Schrembs has approved the movement. Until a priest is assigned them the colored people will have the use of the Cathedral chapel.

RETREAT AT ACADEMY.

P. of the Sacred Heart Retreat on the Newburg road, conducted the spiritual retreat that opened Monday morning and closed on Ascension Thursday at the Sacred Heart Retreat in Crescent Hill. The retreat was given for the pupils of that splendid educational institution for girls and young women.

POPE PIUS WELL.

The latest advices from Rome are that Pope Pius X. has completely recovered from his recent illness. Wednesday the Holy Father descended from his department to the floor below, where his general audiences are held.

EXPLANATORY.

In mentioning the visit of the Right Rev. Denis O'Donoghue, D. D., to the convent of the Good Shepherd on Sunday, April 20, it was inadvertently stated that this was the first time the Right Reverend Bishop had officiated at an important event in this convent. What was intended was to say that this was the most important event that the Bishop had participated in in this convent since he has been in Louisville. The fact is that Bishop O'Donoghue has evinced great interest in the work of the Sisters of the Good Shepherd since he first came to Louisville and had been there on several occasions previous to April 20.

MISSION A FAILURE.

The amended alien land law which passed the California Senate last Tuesday makes it impossible for an alien, ineligible to citizenship, to hold real property in that State. For some time the proposed law has attracted widespread attention in diplomatic circles, and was regarded as of such importance by President Wilson and the State Department as to require the sending of Secretary of State Bryan to Sacramento on a special mission. Secretary Bryan held conference with the Governor and the Legislature, but they appear to have been barren of results.

SIZED HER RIGHT.

Mrs. Philip Snowden, the English suffragette who spoke Sunday night in the Fourth Avenue Methodist church, was not very complimentary of America or Americans. She descended to the level of the commonest politician and denounced Hon. Henry Watterson, editor of the Courier-Journal, as "a liar," but did not specify in what manner, and challenged the brilliant editor to a "joint debate." When Editor Watterson's attention was called to the challenge he tartly replied: "I can imagine no greater waste of time than a battered old man and a silly old woman bandying words across a broomstick!" Which shows he had this notoriety seeker sized up right. And we might remark this was a queer use to be made of a church.

POLITICS AND RELIGION.

Our Catholic contemporaries have been devoting much space discussing the political situation and President Wilson's appointments. They are correct when they contend that Catholics who are candidates for office, if they have the proper qualifications, should not be dependent entirely on the votes of Catholics. On the other hand the latter should not refuse to vote for non-Catholics if they are known to be honest and competent just because they are not members of the church. Popularity with the voters is seldom biased by reason of religion. In the matter of appointments, from the highest in the land to the lowest in the city, Catholics consistently demand that the circumstance of religion must not in itself constitute a bar. When President Taft made White Chief Justice of the Supreme Court he was no more moved by the consideration of religion than was President Cleveland when he gave the same learned Senator from Louisiana a place on the bench, than was McKinley when McKenna, a member of the Cabinet, was made a Justice of the Supreme Court. Catholics are honored, in that from their body are taken such worthy and capable men; but further than that they have no more interest in these selections than have other citizens. Joseph Patrick Tumulty and ex-Gov. Burke owe their appointments to their personal qualifications and to no desire to single out Catholics for office within the gift of President Wilson. In proportion to their numbers Catholics are on the whole but poorly represented in the official life of our country. The conduct of Catholics in achieving and maintaining American liberty—that they have done in the past and what they are doing in the present as American citizens—is an open book that presents a glorious record. The State is a complete society in itself, having for its object the temporal welfare and prosperity of its citizens. In legitimately striving for this object it is within its sovereign domain; its efforts should be supported by the subjects of the Government and no outside interference is to be brooked. The Catholic church is in the world to teach what is of divine authority in faith and morals, that souls may enjoy eternal life in heaven. The best Catholic is the best citizen.

Every one who can should contribute to the Young Men's Hebrew Association building fund. This is a movement in the right direction and will be productive of good results. No matter who you are, give something to this deserving organization. This is the first public appeal of our Jewish friends, and there should be a generous response.

Remember that Trinity Sunday falls on May 18 this year. You know what that means, don't you? Your Easter duty must be made by that time.

Three hundred and seventy-three Catholic churches built in the United States last year speak well for the growing religious spirit of our country.

The end of the scholastic year is drawing near. Only a few weeks more and the "awful girl graduate" will be with us again.

The Ascension day services in the Catholic churches throughout the city were marked by the attendance of large numbers of our people.

Pope Pius was born June 2, 1835, in Riese, Italy.

TAY PAY

Says the Home Rule Fight Must Go On to Its Finish.

In his weekly cablegram from London Hon. T. P. O'Connor, M. P., says the danger of a snap division still threatens the Liberals, but apparently there is little danger at the moment, as the Liberal attendance has become larger and more regular, while the depression in the Tory ranks finds eloquent evidence in the sparseness of their numbers in the House of Commons. Few allusions were made during the week to home rule beyond a few asperities about a coming civil war by Orange spokesmen, and a denial by Sir Edward Carson of rumors that he favored a compromise. Nobody ever suggested any such reasonable attitude by him, and apparently the fight must go to a finish. Nobody now doubts that home rule will pass into law next year, but there is little prospect of its coming before agitation in favor of some form of compulsory military service makes some progress among the military jingo classes.

APPEALS FOR SISTERS.

At a meeting held in a French city for the purpose of protesting against the expulsion of the Little Sisters of the Assumption there were a number of speakers. The most effective as well as the tersest of all was a laborer, who said: "Some months ago I had an attack of typhoid fever. My wife contracted the malady, too, as did my two children. One of the Little Sisters came to our home and nursed us for weeks. We are all well now, but the Little Sister is dead. I have nothing more to say."

ANOTHER SISTER HEROINE.

The Dayton flood, like all great flood disasters, produces its heroines. Sister Helen, of Notre Dame convent in North Dayton, rescued seventy endangered persons by throwing a rope from the convent window and hauling them to safety. The Sister worked with great spirit and her hands were lacerated by the jerks of the rope.

CALDEY ABBEY.

Caldey Island, South Wales, the home of the Anchorite monks, who recently embraced Catholicism, was for a thousand years a monastic property, broken only by Henry VIII., when it became secular property. Caldey Abbey was founded by Celtic monks in the year 450. Among the great names connected with it are those of St. Ilyd, St. Arthur, St. Paul of Leon and St. Gildas. The high altar at Caldey Monastery is built principally of stones taken from the ruined religious houses of Great Britain and Ireland.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS.

Late News That Will Interest
Members Here and Elsewhere.

Twenty-two candidates were elected at last week's meeting of Omaha Council.

The Knights of Newport, Ky., will give a big minstrel show in their hall on May 7 and 8.

Evansville had a class of fifty-five for initiation last Sunday. The three degrees were conferred.

Last Sunday week fifty men who enlisted in the ranks of Knighthood received the three degrees at Little Rock.

Denver Knights gave a big minstrel parade and free show Tuesday for the nuns and school children of the city.

Denver Knights gave a "book social" Tuesday night, the price of admission being one or more books for their library.

Charles Carroll Council at O'Neill, Neb., commemorated its tenth anniversary by receiving fifty new members into the order.

Everywhere throughout the country initiations have been held during the past month, the increase in membership being the largest ever reported for that period.

The initiation at Elwood, Ind., was a record breaker, the class numbering fifty. The State Deputy said it was the best initiation witnessed in Indiana in a long time.

Sixty candidates will receive the second and third at a district initiation to be held tomorrow at Laporte, Ind., by the three councils of Laporte, Michigan City and Valparaiso.

Omaha Council has secured the Auditorium for the Memorial day exercises, when the children of the parochial schools will take part.
Bishop Thien will deliver the principal address.

YOUNG FOLKS' SOCIAL.

The children of St. Joseph's church, East Washington street, are preparing a pleasant social for their parents and friends, to be held in the school hall on May 20. There are 270 children enrolled in this school, and the proceeds of the social will go to defray the expense of building a four-room addition, work on which will be soon begun.

ROCHESTER PRIEST APPOINTED.

Mayor Edgerton, of Rochester, N.
Y., has appointed the Rev. A. M.
O'Neill, rector of the Church of the Immaculate Conception in that city,
as a member of the Public Library Commission. Catholics of Rochester are heavy taxpayers, as they are in Louisville, and it is fitting that they should be represented on the Library Board. Their money goes a long way toward the upkeep of the institution.

COVINGTON.

Judge M. T. Shine, of Covington, is a candidate for the office of County Judge, and all indications point to his election. Judge Shine is one of the foremost lawyers in that section of Kentucky, whose past experience on the bench especially fits him for the County Judgeship.

GROWTH OF BERLIN.

Berlin has made strides the last year in catching up with London,
New York and Paris in population.
Statistics show that the inhabitants of the German metropolis and eighty-six suburbs, constituting the so-called Greater Berlin, now number a little more than 4,000,000.

ST. PAUL

Begins Three-Game Series
With Our Colonels
Today.

The St. Paul team, headed by Bill Friel, former Columbus manager, will begin a three-game series with Louisville this afternoon, and according to the present playing form on both, the Colonels should have no trouble in annexing at least two out of the three games, the Saints being contenders for the cellar position since the opening games. The aggressive spirit shown by the locals in the two games with their former heroes, Minneapolis and Milwaukee, has infused the fans to the highest point of enthusiasm, as evinced by the splendid week day crowds, the attendance being a tribute to Owner Wathen for once more putting Louisville on the baseball map, and with fair weather tomorrow an equally as large crowd as that of opening day is expected. The individual work of Clemens, Nelhof, Osborne, Weinberg and Nicholson, all new men on the team, has been especially pleasing, and if the latter picks up in his hitting he will be sure to break in the lineup again. St. Paul will be followed by Columbus, who also have a new manager, Bill Hutchinson, who succeeded Friel this season.

SPRING RACE MEETING.

One week from today the Louisville Jockey Club will open its spring race meeting at Churchill Downs, when the Derby will be run, and this race promises to be one of the greatest in the history of the American turf. With Hawthorne, Ten Point, Foundation, Leochares and other good ones to face the barrier, a Derby that will surpass all others is confidently looked for. President Jralinger and General Manager Matt Wren are slated over the outlook for the meeting, which will continue for thirteen days. From all parts of the country horses are arriving daily, and by this time next week every one worthy of note will be here. The presence of Judge Charles P. Price and Will Shelley in the Judges' stand is assurance that every race will be fairly run from "end to end." As usual, there will be a free field Derby day.

Races and Other Gayeties
Draw Society to Irish Capital.

From London comes news that society's activities have been chiefly displayed in Dublin this week. It is a long time since so many well known persons of the social world have crossed the Irish Channel to attend the Punchestown races and other social functions. During the week many house parties were held in and around Dublin. Lord and Lady Aberdeen, Lord and Lady Decies and Sir Arthur and Lady Paget were among the largest entertainers. Lady Paget gave a ball Tuesday night at the Royal Hospital, Dublin, being their first entertainment in honor of the Lord Lieutenant and Lady Aberdeen. It was the most successful and brilliant affair that has taken place in Dublin for many a day. More than 500 persons were present. The large hall of the Royal Hospital is admirably adapted for functions of this kind, and made a capital background for the display of smart dresses and uniforms in honor of the Lord Lieutenant. All the military men attending the ball were in full uniform.

What the Club Plan Is-- What It Means to You:

The Club Plan is an extended payment plan instituted purely and simply for the convenience of our patrons who wish to buy Household Goods, such as Furniture, Carpets, Rugs, etc.

When you join the Club Plan you are asked to pay 3 per cent. of the amount of your purchases for joining; for instance

The membership fee on a $25.00 purchase would be 75c.

The membership fee on a $50.00 purchase would be $1.50.

The membership fee on greater purchases would of course be in proportion.

You are then asked to pay 10 per cent. of your total purchase as the first payment. For instance, on a $25.00 purchase you pay $2.50 down in addition to the membership fee, making a total of $3.25. The goods are then delivered to you and you arrange to pay the balance in small weekly or monthly payments.

When you consider that goods bought on the Club Plan are purchased at our cash prices—whether special or regular—you will more clearly see that our membership fee is nothing in comparison with the additional cost installment houses place on their goods for the privilege of time payments.

FURNITURE, CARPETS, RUGS, HOUSE FURNISHINGS AND OTHER HOUSEHOLD GOODS ARE SOLD ON THE CLUB PLAN.

Any further information regarding the Club Plan will be cheerfully given by our salespeople or at the Credit office on the fifth floor.
